ELECTION REPORT – FIRST PHASE

On October 18, 2022, the Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College witnessed the successful completion of the first phase of its Mock Election, orchestrated by the IQAC, College Election Commission, and the Department and Students Coordination Wing. Under the vigilant guidance of Returning Officer K Ali Madani, the primary objective of this endeavor was to instill democratic values and emphasize the significance of the right to vote among the student body. Mr. Madani underscored the importance of students' awareness of fundamental duties to fortify democracy, emphasizing that informed and responsible citizenship is pivotal for the sustenance of a healthy democratic society. The election proceedings unfolded seamlessly, with class representatives, association representatives, and candidates for general posts being selected in accordance with university guidelines.

Leading the charge in facilitating the smooth execution of the election were RUA College Research Scholars S. Muhammad Shan, KP Wafira Hanan, and Umar Farooq. Their dedication and efforts were pivotal in ensuring the efficiency and fairness of the electoral process. The active participation of teachers, non-teaching staff, and students in various roles such as presiding, polling, counting, and security volunteers further contributed to the success of the event. This first phase of the Mock Election not only served as a practical exercise in democratic governance but also underscored the college's commitment to nurturing informed and engaged citizens who understand their rights and responsibilities in shaping the democratic fabric of society.

ELECTION REPORT – SECOND PHASE

The Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College's electoral process entered its second phase on November 8, 2022, marking a significant step towards fostering democratic values and civic engagement among the student body. Led by the collaborative efforts of the College Election Commission and the Department and Students Coordination Wing, the process aimed to instill awareness about fundamental duties crucial for strengthening democracy, as emphasized by the Returning Officer, K Ali Madani.

The second phase of the college election continued the momentum built during the initial phase, focusing on selecting class representatives, association representatives, and candidates for general posts. Following the instructions outlined by the university, the electoral process proceeded smoothly, demonstrating a commitment to upholding democratic principles and procedures.

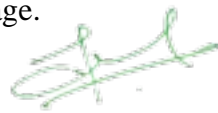

Key Highlights:

Enhanced Awareness: Building upon the foundation laid in the first phase, students exhibited a heightened awareness of their roles and responsibilities within a democratic framework. The emphasis on fundamental duties resonated throughout the election process, underscoring the importance of active participation in civic affairs.

Student Leadership: The election witnessed the emergence of student leaders who demonstrated exemplary dedication and organizational skills. Research Scholars S. Muhammad Shan, KP Wafira Hanan, and Umar Farooq played pivotal roles in orchestrating the electoral proceedings, ensuring transparency and fairness at every stage.

Inclusive Participation: Teachers, non-teaching staff, and students actively contributed to the electoral process, assuming diverse roles such as presiding officers, polling officials, counters, and security volunteers. Their collective efforts contributed to the smooth and efficient conduct of the election, fostering a sense of inclusivity and collaboration.

Challenges and Resolutions:

While the electoral process unfolded seamlessly for the most part, certain challenges were encountered and effectively addressed:

Logistical Coordination: Coordinating various aspects of the election, including scheduling, venue arrangements, and resource allocation, required meticulous planning and coordination. However, effective communication and teamwork ensured that logistical challenges were swiftly resolved, allowing the process to proceed without disruptions.

Ensuring Equity: Upholding the principles of fairness and equity posed a constant challenge, especially in the selection of candidates and allocation of resources. Transparent decision-making processes and adherence to established guidelines helped mitigate concerns regarding favoritism or bias, ensuring a level playing field for all participants.

The successful completion of the second phase of the college election reaffirms the commitment of Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College to nurturing democratic values and fostering active citizenship among its student community. By instilling awareness about fundamental duties and promoting inclusive participation, the electoral process serves as a cornerstone for the cultivation of responsible and engaged leaders of tomorrow.

Moving forward, the college remains steadfast in its dedication to promoting democratic ideals and empowering students to become catalysts for positive change within their communities.
