Certificate program in Computerised Accounting

Certificate program in Computerised Accounting - Tally commenced on 14th June 2023 at Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College. The event was organized by the Department of Commerce in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). The workshop aimed to enhance the participants' understanding and skills in computerized accounting using Tally software.

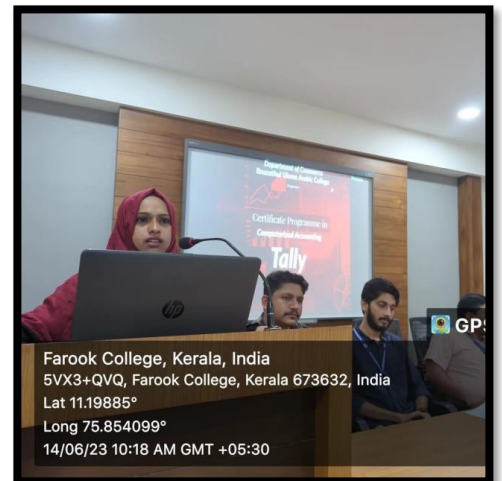

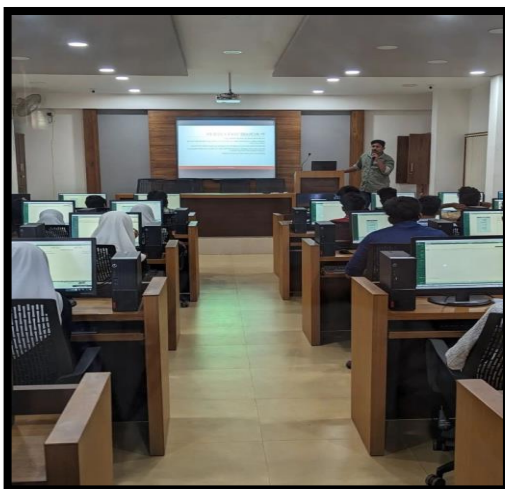

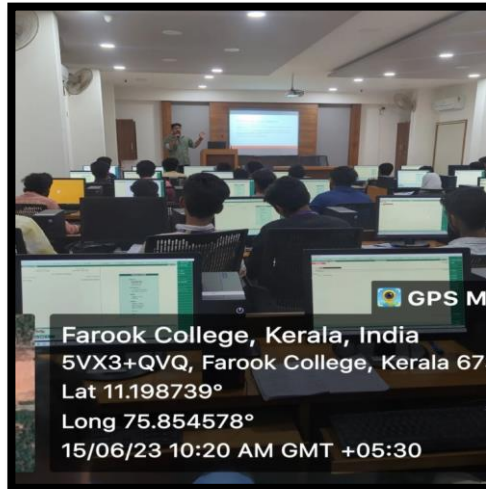

The program began with a warm welcome by Muhammed Zameel K M, Assistant Professor in Commerce, who introduced the program and its objectives. Following the welcome address, the Principal of Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College, Shahad Bin Aly, inaugurated the program, emphasizing the importance of computerized accounting in the current digital era.

Dr. Fahad P, Head of the Department of Commerce, delivered the presidential address. He highlighted the significance of mastering Tally software for accurate and efficient accounting practices. Sanabil T A, the IT Incharge, extended felicitations to the organizers and participants, acknowledging the growing importance of technology in the field of commerce.

The workshop featured Arunkumar, Assistant Professor in Commerce from Farook College, as the resource person. Arunkumar brought in-depth knowledge and expertise in Tally software, providing participants with practical insights and hands-on training. He explained various accounting concepts and demonstrated how to use Tally for tasks such as ledger management, journal entries, and generating financial reports.

Throughout the day, participants actively engaged in interactive sessions, practical exercises, and case studies. They gained hands-on experience in Tally and were able to clarify their doubts through open discussions. The resource person encouraged participants to explore advanced features of Tally and shared useful tips and tricks to streamline accounting processes.

On the second day of the program, which took place on 15th June 2023, the focus shifted towards advanced topics in computerized accounting using Tally. Arunkumar continued the session by delving into topics such as inventory management, taxation, payroll accounting, etc.

YIP (Young Innovators Program)

Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College, Department of Commerce, IEDC (Innovation and Entrepreneurship Development Cell), and YIP (Young Innovators Program) collaborated to organize a program titled "Innovation through YIP." The program aimed to foster innovation, entrepreneurship, and skill development among students, providing them with a platform to explore their creative potential and cultivate an entrepreneurial mindset. Program Highlights:

The program commenced with a warm welcome by Jumaina, Assistant Professor of the Department of Commerce and YIP Coordinator of the college. Jumaina expressed gratitude to all the participants for their presence and emphasized the importance of innovation and entrepreneurship in today's rapidly evolving world. Shahad bin Aly, the Principal of Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College, inaugurated the program. In his inaugural address, he emphasized the significance of nurturing an innovative mindset among students. He commended the collaboration between the college, iEDC, and YIP, recognizing its potential to inspire entrepreneurship. Sanabil T, the IT faculty of the college, was felicitated for her contributions to promoting innovation and technology among students. Her dedication and efforts in integrating technology into the curriculum were recognized and appreciated.

Megha, an intern from YIP, served as the resource person for the program. Megha shared her insights and experiences in the world of innovation and entrepreneurship. Through interactive sessions, workshops, and activities, Megha engaged the participants, enabling them to enhance their understanding and practical skills related to innovation.

The program featured a series of workshops and activities designed to stimulate creativity and critical thinking. Participants engaged in hands-on exercises, group discussions, and brainstorming sessions. The activities exposed them to various ideation techniques, problem-solving methodologies, and the process of transforming ideas into viable projects. Collaboration and out-of-the-box thinking were encouraged throughout. A panel discussion on the topic of "Promoting Innovation and Entrepreneurship in Education" took place...

Excel Workshop

The Department of Commerce and the CGC Cell successfully conducted a hands-on Financial Analysis using Excel Workshop on 19th July 2023 at the Informatics Centre. The event aimed to provide valuable insights into analyzing financial statements and understanding the performance of Indian listed companies from 2018 to 2023 using various key ratios such as liquidity, solvency, and market test ratios.

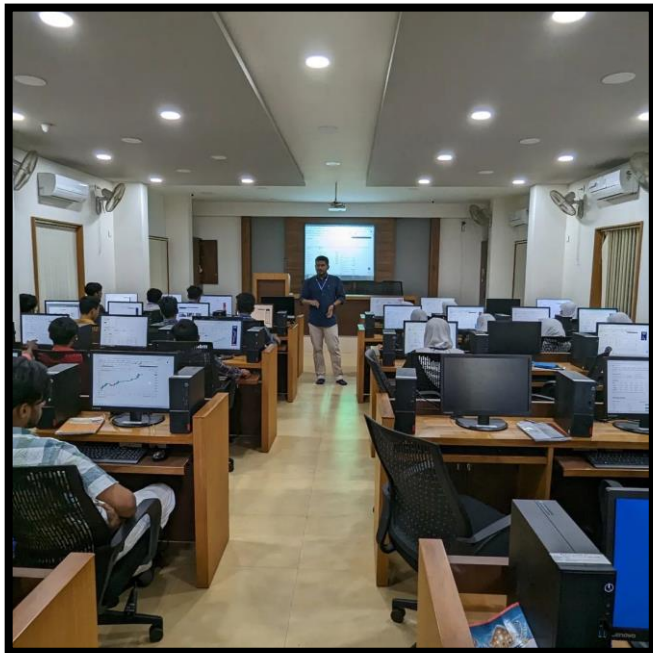

The workshop began with a warm welcome from Muhammed Zameel K M, Assistant Professor of Commerce, who expressed gratitude to all the participants for their enthusiasm and eagerness to learn. Shahad Bin Aly, the esteemed Principal, inaugurated the event, encouraging the participants to make the most of the learning opportunities provided during the workshop.

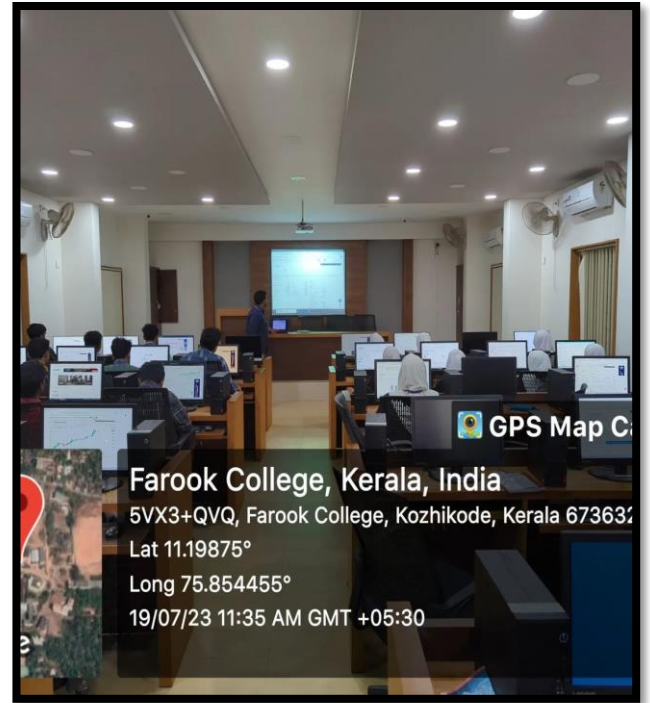

Ashbal, the class representative, was felicitated during the event for demonstrating outstanding leadership and support to the organizing team.

Riza, another class representative, delivered a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the resource person, participants, and the organizing team for their collective efforts in making the workshop a success.

Dr. Fahad P, the Head of the Department of Commerce, served as the resource person for the workshop. With his extensive knowledge and expertise in the field, he guided the participants through the practical session on financial analysis of Balance Sheets and Profit and Loss accounts. Using real-world examples from Indian listed companies during the period from 2019 to 2023, Dr. Fahad P elucidated the importance of ratios in evaluating a company's financial health.

Participants actively engaged in hands-on exercises, analyzing financial statements, and calculating various ratios to gauge liquidity, solvency, and market performance of companies. They were provided with valuable insights into interpreting the results and making informed financial decisions.

Research Methodology Workshop on Research Proposal Writing

The Department of Commerce and the Research Promotion Council organized a one-day Research Methodology Workshop on Research Proposal Writing on July 31, 2023, at the Seminar Hall. The workshop aimed to enhance participants' understanding of research methods, stages, and the significance of research in the context of the National Education Policy (NEP). Dr. Fahad P, Head of the Department of Commerce, expertly handled the session, covering important topics such as the importance of research in NEP, different research methods and stages, proposal writing techniques, and software and AI tools available for research.

The workshop began with a warm welcome from Muhammed Zameel K M, Assistant Professor of Commerce, who expressed gratitude to all the participants for their enthusiasm and eagerness to learn. Shahad Bin Aly, the esteemed Principal, inaugurated the event, encouraging the participants to make the most of the learning opportunities provided during the workshop.

During the event, Ashbal, the class representative, was felicitated for demonstrating outstanding leadership and support to the organizing team. The workshop concluded with Riza, another class representative, delivering a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the organizers, speakers, and participants for their valuable contributions to the success of the workshop.

The Research Methodology Workshop on Research Proposal Writing proved to be a valuable learning experience for all participants. It provided them with essential knowledge and skills to undertake research effectively and align their work with the objectives of the National Education Policy. The workshop's well-structured sessions and interactive activities facilitated meaningful engagement and knowledge sharing among the attendees. The event's success was a testament to the collaborative efforts of the Department of Commerce and the Research Promotion Council in promoting research excellence and fostering a culture of learning.

The event took place at the Seminar Hall and aimed to provide students with valuable insights into the corporate world and enhance their professional skills.

The programme commenced with a warm welcome by Ashbal, the Class Representative of the students participating in the event. Dr Fahad P, Head of the Commerce Department, presided over the session as the Chairperson, underscoring the evolution and importance of international Commerce Day, which is celebrated on first Monday of August and the significance of practical exposure in the field of commerce.

Shahad bin Aly, the Principal of the institution, inaugurated the programme, conveyed students international Commerce day wishes and emphasizing the importance of such initiatives in bridging the gap between academia and industry. The keynote address was delivered by Noushad, the Academic Coordinator at Logic School of Management. He shed light on the importance of internships in students' academic and career growth.

The heart of the event was the session led by Mithun Mitwa, a distinguished Career Consultant and Corporate Trainer. Mr. Mitwa guided the participants through an orientation session that covered a wide array of topics, including:

Return filing and tax compliance, Essential management skills for the corporate world, Analysis of real-world case studies Effective communication skills and business English usage And much more.

Mr. Mitwa's insights and practical knowledge added tremendous value to the programme, equipping the students with skills that are crucial for their future success in the corporate landscape.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Riza Fathima, another Class Representative. She expressed gratitude to all the speakers, participants, and organizers for their contributions to the successful execution of the Corporate Internship Programme.

Induction Programme for First Year B.Com Students

The Department of Commerce, in collaboration with Logic School of Management (LSM), organized an insightful and informative induction programme for the first year B.Com students on 07.08.23 at Seminar hall. The event aimed to provide students with valuable insights into career opportunities in professional accounting and the corporate world. The programme was held under the able guidance of Dr. Fahad P, the Head of the Commerce Department.

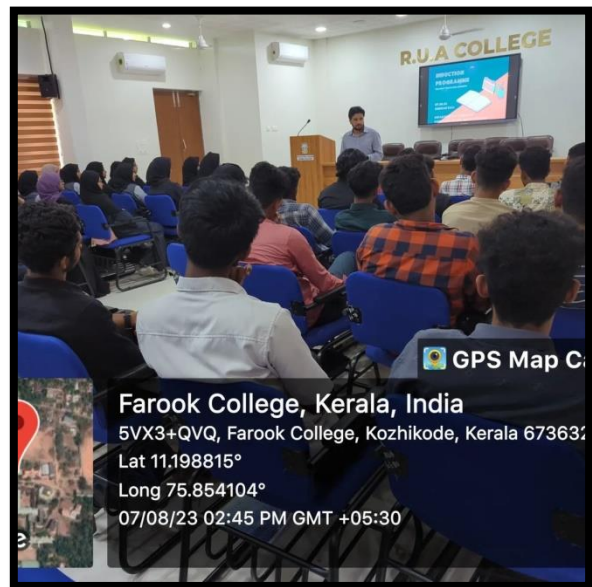

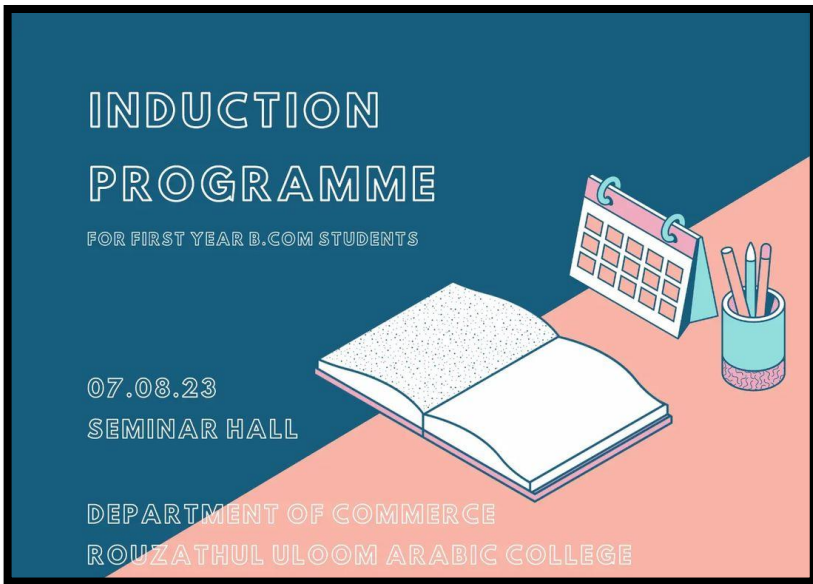

The inauguration of the event was graced by Shahad bin Aly, the esteemed Principal of the institution, who highlighted the importance of such initiatives in guiding students towards successful career paths. The event proceeded with a warm welcome extended by Dr. Fahad P, who emphasized the significance of exploring diverse career options in the field of commerce.

The keynote address was delivered by Noushad, the Academic Coordinator of Logic School of Management. He shared invaluable insights on the various career opportunities that await commerce graduates in the corporate world. Noushad's speech provided students with a comprehensive overview of the evolving dynamics of the industry and the skills required to excel in professional accounting and corporate sectors.

The highlight of the programme was the session conducted by Mithun Mitwa, a renowned corporate trainer and career consultant. Mithun Mitwa delved into the different professional courses available for commerce graduates, shedding light on how these courses can enhance their career prospects. His engaging presentation captivated the audience and left them with a deeper understanding of the potential pathways they could pursue.

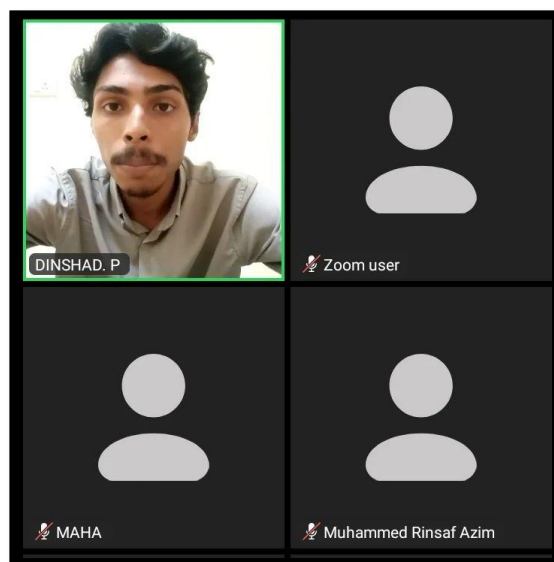

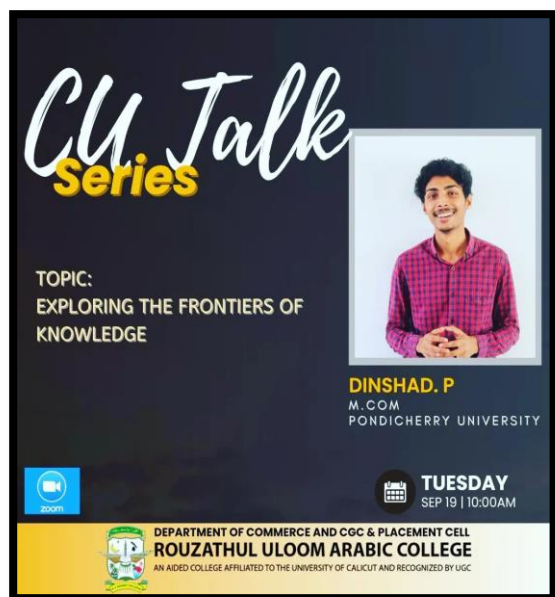

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by a student representative on behalf of the attendees. The student expressed gratitude to the Department of Commerce, Logic School of Management, and all the speakers for their insightful contributions that would undoubtedly guide the students towards a promising future.

The induction programme successfully achieved its objective of enlightening the first year B.Com students about the diverse career opportunities in pro- accounting.

Cu TALK

The Department of Commerce, in collaboration with the Career Guidance and Counselling Cell, hosted an enlightening Central University Talk Series on the 19th of September 2023. The virtual event, conducted via Zoom due to the ongoing Nipha pandemic situation, aimed to offer valuable insights to students aspiring to pursue a Master of Commerce (MCom) program at Central University, Pondicherry. The program featured an esteemed resource person, Dinshad, who holds an MCom degree from Central University, and a warm welcome speech by Jumaina, Assistant Professor at ROUZATHUL ULOOM ARABIC College. During the interactive session, attendees explored various aspects, including the fee structure, admission procedures, available facilities, scholarships, language options, the presence of NET/JRF coaching centers, the importance of seniors, peer teaching, and one-to-one teaching. Dinshad's inspiring narrative, highlighting the value of a degree from ROUZATHUL ULOOM ARABIC College and explaining the enticing Ph.D. opportunities, resonated with the audience. Anas, a final-year BCom student, actively engaged with Dinshad during the session, adding to the dynamic discussion. The program concluded on a note of gratitude with a vote of thanks delivered by Ashbal. This Central University Talk Series left attendees well-informed and inspired to consider Central University, Pondicherry, for their higher education journey in Commerce.

Certified Professional Computer Accounting (CPCA)

The Department of Commerce, in collaboration with Golden wings, conducted a highly anticipated orientation program for B.Com students on September 25, 2023, at 11 am, in the Seminar Hall. The primary objective of this event was to introduce students to the Certified Professional Computer Accounting (CPCA) Add-On Course. The program aimed to underline the significance of this course in enhancing students' professional skills, equipping them for success in their future careers. Dr. Fahad P, the Head of the Department of Commerce, extended a warm welcome to all participants, setting a positive tone for the event.

The inauguration of the orientation program was carried out by Shahad bin Aly, the Principal of the institution. In his speech, he emphasized the institution's commitment to providing holistic education and applauded the collaborative effort between the Department of Commerce and Goldwing in offering the CPCA course. The highlight of the event was the informative presentation by Mr. Sharafudheen K, CEO & Founder of Goldwing. Mr. Sharafudheen elaborated on the diverse range of courses covered under the CPCA Add-On Course, including Tally, Excel, GST, and more. He provided insights into the practical applications of these skills in the professional world and shared success stories of past CPCA graduates who had secured promising career opportunities.

Following Mr. Sharafudheen's presentation, students had the opportunity to engage in a question-and-answer session. This interactive segment allowed students to clarify their doubts and gain a deeper understanding of the CPCA course. Mr. Sharafudheen patiently addressed their queries, further motivating students to consider enrolling in the program. The event concluded with a networking session, facilitating interactions between students and faculty members. This orientation program successfully achieved its goal of enlightening B.Com students about the advantages of the CPCA Add-On Course, fostering a sense of enthusiasm for professional growth, and highlighting the commitment of the institution and Goldwing to students' career development.

Financial strategyspectacle (Auction Game)

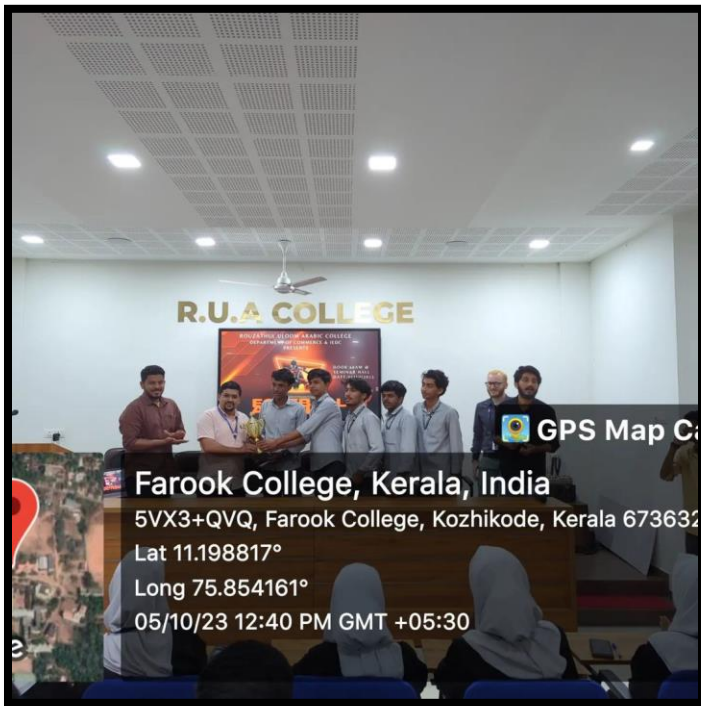

In a thrilling Financial strategyspectacle, the Department of Commerce at Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College, in collaboration with the Innovation and Entrepreneurship Development Cell (IEDC), hosted the Football Players Auction Game from October 3 to October 5, 2023. This event brought together 26 teams, each comprising 5 students, for the preliminary round on October 3. The competition was fierce as these young talents showcased their strategic acumen and teamwork, setting the stage for the upcoming finals.

As the excitement built, the finals on October 5, 2023, featured 11 outstanding teams, all vying for the coveted championship. The atmosphere was charged with energy as these budding strategists displayed their skills and determination in a thrilling showdown. Ultimately, the winners emerged as Arshak and his team, a group of 2nd-year B.Com students, while the runners-up were Minhaj and his team, also from the 2nd-year B.Com program.

The event was graced by distinguished dignitaries, including Muhammed Zameel, Assistant Professor in Commerce, who extended a warm welcome. Dr. Fahad P, the Head of the Commerce Department, delivered an inspiring presidential address. The inauguration was conducted by Shahad Bin Aly, the esteemed Principal of Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College, and Ismail Ibrahim, Assistant Professor in Arabic, offered a gracious vote of thanks. Coordinating the event efficiently were Jaseel and Ashbal, both 3rd-year B.Com students, who played pivotal roles in its execution.

The Football Players Auction Game not only celebrated sportsmanship but also nurtured strategic thinking and teamwork among the participating students. It provided a platform for these young talents to shine and compete in a friendly yet fiercely competitive environment. The Department of Commerce expresses its heartfelt gratitude to all participants, coordinators, dignitaries, and sponsors who contributed to the event's success. With a commitment to nurturing talent and promoting holistic development, the department eagerly anticipates more exciting and enriching events in the future.

NSKL

On October 4th, 2023, an orientation event took place, marking the collaboration between NSKL and Kerala Startup Mission, in association with the Department of Commerce, Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College. The event was specifically designed for final year B.Com students and aimed to provide insights into the Certificate course in Business Accounting. The program commenced with a warm welcome from Muhammed Zameel, an Assistant Professor in Commerce, followed by a presidential address delivered by Jumaina N. P, also an Assistant Professor in Commerce. Dr. Fahad P, HOD and Assistant Professor in Commerce, inaugurated the event, and Shabi Suhail, an Assistant Professor in Commerce, delivered the vote of thanks. The program also included a felicitation by Ismail Ibrahim, an Assistant Professor in Arabic, adding a diverse perspective to the occasion. This collaborative effort between academic institutions and the Department of Commerce demonstrates a commitment to empowering the next generation of commerce professionals with essential skills and knowledge in business accounting.

The orientation program proved to be a valuable opportunity for final year B.Com students to gain insights into the Certificate course in Business Accounting. It not only showcased the commitment of NSKL, Kerala Startup Mission, and the Department of Commerce to academic excellence but also highlighted the multidisciplinary nature of education by including an Assistant Professor in Arabic for felicitation. The event set a positive tone for the students' journey into the world of business accounting, emphasizing the importance of collaborative efforts between educational institutions and industry-related organizations. It is anticipated that the knowledge and experiences gained during this orientation will serve as a strong foundation for these students as they embark on their careers in the field of commerce and accounting

Mental Awareness Day Program Enlightens Students

In a significant event organized by the 2nd Year B.Com students from the Department of Commerce at Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College, a Mental Awareness Day Program recently unfolded. This event emphasized the crucial theme of mental health and well-being, offering students a comprehensive experience. It was marked by a warm welcome from Adhil, followed by a thought-provoking presidential address from Shabi Suhail, an Assistant Professor in Commerce, who underscored the vital role of mental health awareness.

The program was inaugurated by Dr. Fahad, the Head of the Commerce Department, signifying the commencement of a day dedicated to the well-being of students. Felicitation was given by Assistant Professors Jumaina N P and Muhammed Zameel for the program. Hafeeda delivered the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude on behalf of the organizing team for all those who played key roles in making the event a reality. Dhiya, the overall anchor, skillfully guided the program, ensuring smooth transitions and keeping the audience engaged.

The heart of the event featured a series of engaging activities to promote mental well-being and cognitive abilities. Dhiya hosted an interactive quiz, challenging participants' knowledge and cognitive agility. Hafeeda introduced mindfulness and balance through the "Infinity Rope," and Thahmeena led a balancing game session. The event took a short intermission, allowing participants to recharge, followed by Fidha's intriguing "Fishy Mind Teaser" and Safa's session on effective communication. The success of the program was attributed to the dedication and teamwork of volunteers, discipline management, reporting, refreshments, technical support, financial oversight, and impartial judging. Mental Awareness Day Program was an exceptional success, emphasizing the importance of mental health, and leaving a lasting impact on the 1st-year B.Com students.

Inauguration of the CPCA add-on course.

The inauguration of the Certified Professional Computer Accounting (CPCA) add-on course, a collaborative effort between the Department of Commerce and Goldwings Global Business Solutions and Educational Centre, took place on October 19, 2023, at 10 a.m. The Seminar Hall provided the perfect setting for this significant event, attended by a diverse audience comprising faculty, students, and esteemed guests.

Dr. Fahad P, the Head of the Department of Commerce, delivered a warm and engaging welcome address, emphasizing the importance of providing students with practical skills to thrive in the fields of commerce and accounting.

Shahad bin Aly, the institution's Principal, officiated the course inauguration, highlighting its alignment with the institution's commitment to delivering cutting-edge educational opportunities.

The event featured a notable Chief Guest, Sharafudheen, CEO of Goldwings Global Business Solutions, who lent further credibility to the program and stressed the significance of industry-academia collaboration.

Mahroof C, the Managing Director of Goldwings, provided an insightful Course Introduction. He presented a comprehensive overview of the CPCA program, delving into its curriculum, course content, and the promising career and placement prospects it offers to students.

Additionally, Shabi Suhail, Assistant Professor of Commerce, delivered a felicitation address, while Jumaina NP, Assistant Professor of Commerce, expressed gratitude in the Vote of Thanks.

The event was made interactive as students had the opportunity to ask questions and engage in fruitful discussions about the course, creating an atmosphere of enthusiasm and curiosity. In conclusion, the inauguration of the CPCA course was a successful and enlightening event, signifying a commitment to provide students with valuable educational opportunities and promising career paths in the field of computer accounting.

An MoU was signed at the college between the Department of Commerce and Goldwings Global Business Solutions and Educational Centre. The MoU by Shahad bin Aly, the college's Principal, and Sharafudheen, the CEO of Goldwings, aims to promote academic collaboration and the development of professional courses to benefit students. Dr. Fahad P, Head of the Department of Commerce, and Mahroof C, Managing Director of Goldwings, witnessed the signing. This partnership seeks to enhance students' educational experiences and create practical career opportunities, bridging the gap between academic knowledge and industry demands. It signifies a significant step toward enriched education and career development for students.

Workshop on Professional courses

The Workshop on Professional courses held at the Department of Commerce, Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College on October 25, 2023, was a significant event aimed at welcoming BCom students to the world of professional accounting. The program featured two informative sessions conducted by resource persons from Acadels Academy. The event commenced with a warm welcome by Muhammed Zameel K, Assistant Professor in Commerce, who set the tone for the day. Following this, Fahad P, the Head of the Department of Commerce, delivered a presidential address, providing valuable insights into the importance of the ACCA qualification for commerce students. Shabi Suhail, another Assistant Professor in Commerce, extended his best wishes to the students, emphasizing the opportunities and prospects that ACCA offers. The event concluded with a vote of thanks from Jumaina NP, who expressed gratitude to the resource persons and encouraged the students to make the most of this valuable orientation.

In summary, the ACCA orientation program at Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College was a well-organized event that provided BCom students with a promising start on their journey towards becoming qualified accountants. The sessions led by Acadels Academy Professional were informative and insightful, setting the stage for the students' future success in the field of commerce. The event's speakers, Muhammed Zameel K, Fahad P, Shabi Suhail, and Jumaina NP, collectively delivered a comprehensive introduction to ACCA and left the students with a sense of purpose and enthusiasm for their academic and professional endeavors.

Academic Readiness Workshop*

The Academic Readiness Workshop held at Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College on 22nd November 2023 catered to the needs of 1st and 2nd-year B.Com students, focusing on bolstering their academic preparedness. The workshop aimed to address prevalent concerns among students regarding exam fears, effective study methodologies, and managing the pressures of academic life.

Facilitated by psychologist and counselor Naveena, the workshop featured a comprehensive agenda covering various essential aspects of academic readiness. Topics included understanding and conquering exam-related anxieties, practical study techniques tailored to individual learning styles, and strategies to alleviate the weight of academic pressure.

Naveena's extensive background in psychology and counseling provided a solid foundation for addressing the students' psychological and academic challenges. Her approachable demeanor fostered an environment conducive to active engagement, prompting students to actively participate by posing questions and sharing their doubts regarding exam preparations and managing study-related stress.

Throughout the sessions, students gained valuable insights and practical takeaways. They were encouraged to identify personalized study methods that resonated with their individual learning approaches. Furthermore, the workshop emphasized the importance of recognizing and addressing the root causes of exam fears while introducing effective strategies to mitigate academic pressure.

Post-workshop feedback reflected the workshop's efficacy, with students expressing appreciation for the relevance and applicability of the strategies discussed. They acknowledged that the workshop equipped them with tangible tools to navigate their academic journey more confidently and effectively.

In conclusion, the Academic Readiness Workshop emerged as a significant milestone in enhancing the academic preparedness of the students at Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College.
