Let's Crack it...! (NET Coaching Crash Course)

The Let's Crack it...! (NET Coaching Crash Course) program was organized by the PG&Research Department of Arabic and Arabic Club in collaboration with CGC (Career Guidance Cell) and IQAC (Date: 13/06/2023 Venue: Seminar Hall Time: 10 AM Internal Quality Assurance Cell) of Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College. The event aimed to provide guidance and support to MA Post Afsal Ulama First and Second Year students in their preparation for the NET (National Eligibility Test) examination. The program commenced with a warm welcome by Dr. Usama C.A, Assistant Professor in the Department of Arabic at RUA College. Dr. Ayman Shouqi, the Head of the Arabic Department, RUA College, served as the Chair for the event. The inauguration was done by Prof. Usman C.K, the Staff Secretary of RUA College. The highlight of the program was a presentation on Data Interpretation delivered by Dr. T Nasarudheen, Assistant Librarian at the University of Calicut. The presentation aimed to enhance the students' understanding and proficiency in data interpretation, which is a crucial component of the NET examination. Following the presentation, Jumaina P, Assistant Professor in the Department of Commerce at RUA College, delivered the vote of thanks. The event organizers expressed their gratitude to all the participants, speakers, and attendees for their valuable contributions and support. Overall, the Let's Crack it...! (NET Coaching Crash Course) program provided a platform for MA Post Afsal Ulama First and Second Year students to gain insights and guidance for their NET examination preparation. The initiative taken by the PG&Research Department of Arabic, Arabic Club, CGC, and IQAC of RUA College demonstrates their commitment to the academic and career development of the students. Such programs play a significant role in equipping students with the necessary knowledge and skills to excel in competitive exams like the NET.

Computerized Accounting - Tally

Day 1:

The two-day workshop on Computerized Accounting - Tally commenced on 14th June 2023 at Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College. The event was organized by the Department of Commerce in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). The workshop aimed to enhance the participants' understanding and skills in computerized accounting using Tally software.

The program began with a warm welcome by Muhammed Zameel K M, Assistant Professor in Commerce, who introduced the workshop and its objectives. Following the welcome address, the Principal of Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College, Shahad Bin Aly, inaugurated the workshop, emphasizing the importance of computerized accounting in the current digital era.

Dr. Fahad P, Head of the Department of Commerce, delivered the presidential address. He highlighted the significance of mastering Tally software for accurate and efficient accounting practices. Sanabil T A, the IT Incharge, extended felicitations to the organizers and participants, acknowledging the growing importance of technology in the field of commerce.

The workshop featured Arunkumar, Assistant Professor in Commerce from Farook College, as the resource person. Arunkumar brought in-depth knowledge and expertise in Tally software, providing participants with practical insights and hands-on training. He explained various accounting concepts and demonstrated how to use Tally for tasks such as ledger management, journal entries, and generating financial reports.

Throughout the day, participants actively engaged in interactive sessions, practical exercises, and case studies. They gained hands-on experience in Tally and were able to clarify their doubts through open discussions. The resource person encouraged participants to explore advanced features of Tally and shared useful tips and tricks to streamline accounting processes.

Day 2:

On the second day of the workshop, which took place on 15th June 2023, the focus shifted towards advanced topics in computerized accounting using Tally. Arunkumar continued the session by delving into topics such as inventory management, taxation, payroll accounting, and GST compliance in Tally.

The participants actively participated in the discussions and practical exercises, applying their knowledge gained from the previous day. Arunkumar provided real-life examples and case studies to illustrate the practical implementation of Tally in various business scenarios. He emphasized the importance of accuracy, data security, and ethical accounting practices while using Tally.

The workshop concluded with Jumaina N P, Assistant Professor in Commerce, delivering the vote of thanks. She expressed gratitude to the resource person, Arunkumar, for sharing his expertise and insights. Jumaina N P also thanked the Principal, HOD, IT Incharge, and all the participants for their active involvement and contributions to make the workshop a success.

The two-day workshop on Computerized Accounting - Tally proved to be an enriching experience for all participants. It enhanced their understanding of Tally software and its applications in the field of accounting. The workshop provided a platform for participants to exchange ideas, clarify doubts, and enhance their practical skills in computerized accounting. The Department of Commerce and IQAC of Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College successfully organized this workshop, contributing to the participants' professional development in the realm of computerized accounting.

Inauguration of the Academic Activities 2023-24 and Meet the Scholar Programme

Date: 21-06-2023 (Wednesday)

The academic year 2023-24 at the Department of Arabic began with great enthusiasm and excitement as the Inauguration of Academic Activities and Meet the Scholar Programme took place on June 21st, 2023. The event aimed to foster knowledge sharing, inspire students, and promote scholarly engagement within the Arabic discipline. Here is a summary of the proceedings:

The event commenced with a warm welcome extended by Dr. Ayman Shouqui P, the Head of the Department of Arabic. His words set a positive tone for the occasion, creating an atmosphere of anticipation and motivation among the attendees.

Prof. Shahad Bin Aly, the Principal, took charge as the chairperson of the event. As a distinguished figure within the academic community, Prof. Aly's presence added credibility and significance to the proceedings.

The highlight of the Inauguration was the address given by the esteemed Prof. P. Mohamed Kuttassery, Former Principal of Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College. Prof. Kuttassery shared his valuable insights and experiences, inspiring the audience with his words of wisdom. His speech emphasized the importance of education, dedication, and the pursuit of knowledge in the Arabic discipline.

Following the Inauguration, the event transitioned into the Meet the Scholar session, where students had the opportunity to interact with renowned scholars in the field. The Chief Guest for this session was Dr. P. K. Hussain Madavoor, the Chairman of the Arabic Discipline at Sreenarayana Guru Open University. Dr. Madavoor's presence was highly appreciated as he shared his expertise and engaged in insightful discussions with the students.

Dr. Fahad P, the Head of the Department of Commerce, and Prof. Usman C K, the Staff Secretary, also graced the occasion with their presence. Both dignitaries delivered felicitations, acknowledging the importance of interdisciplinary collaboration and highlighting the value of academic programs like Meet the Scholar in broadening students' horizons.

Concluding the event, Dr. Aboobacker K, the Convener of Meet the Scholar, delivered a heartfelt vote of thanks. He expressed his gratitude to all the participants, organizers, and attendees for their contributions in making the event a resounding success.

The Inauguration of Academic Activities 2023-24 and Meet the Scholar Programme was organized by the PG & Research Department of Arabic in collaboration with the Arabic Club and IQAC. Their efforts and dedication in arranging such an enriching event were highly commendable.

The event provided a platform for students to engage with accomplished scholars, fostering a spirit of inquiry and intellectual growth. It set the stage for a fruitful academic year ahead, inspiring students to explore the depths of the Arabic discipline and expand their knowledge horizons.

With the successful launch of the academic activities and the inspiring Meet the Scholar session, the Department of Arabic sets the tone for an exciting and enlightening academic year, full of opportunities for intellectual growth and advancement in the field of Arabic studies.

"Towards NAAC 2028: Post Accreditation Quality Initiatives"

Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College's Internal Quality and Assurance Cell (IQAC) organized a one-day Faculty Development Program (FDP) on August 19, 2023. The central focus of this program was to impart knowledge and insights regarding the vital post-accreditation quality initiatives. Attended by both teaching and non-teaching staff, this event played a crucial role in fortifying the institution's commitment to educational excellence.

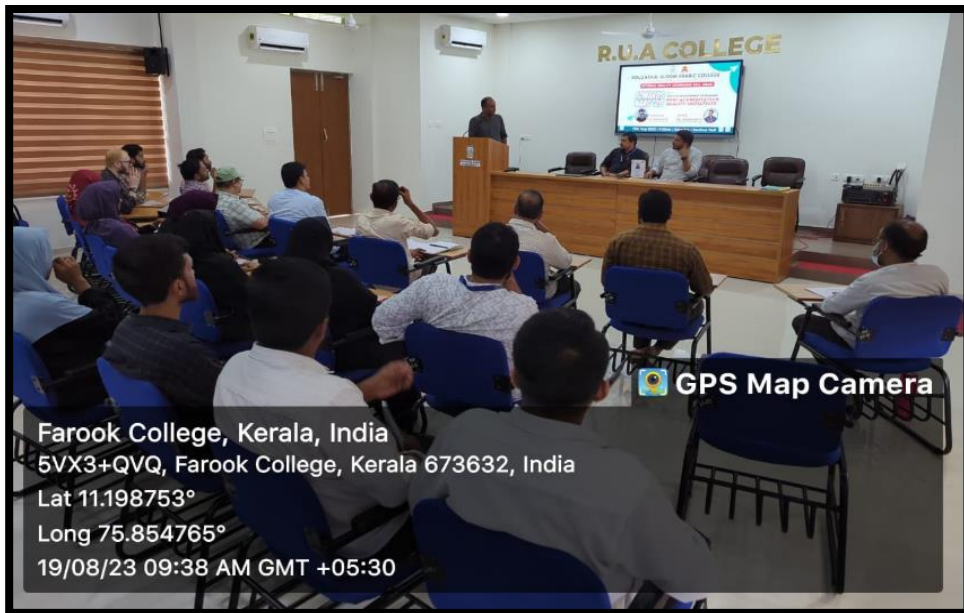

The day commenced with Dr. Fahad P, the IQAC Coordinator, extending a warm welcome to the participants. In his opening remarks, he underscored the significance of the FDP, emphasizing that maintaining educational excellence requires a keen understanding of post-accreditation quality measures.

Principal Shahad bin Aly's inaugural address was particularly inspiring. He highlighted how accreditation acts as a cornerstone in elevating the standards of educational institutions. His words set the tone for the day, reinforcing the institution's dedication to achieving and maintaining accreditation standards.

One of the program's highlights was the enlightening keynote address delivered by Limsheer P, Coordinator of IQAC at MES Ponnani College. Limsheer P expounded upon various post-accreditation quality initiatives and stressed the importance of Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) preparation. This session provided attendees with actionable strategies for ensuring and enhancing quality in higher education institutions.

Interactive sessions throughout the day allowed participants to actively engage with the subject matter, fostering a dynamic learning environment. These sessions not only facilitated a deeper understanding of post-accreditation quality measures but also encouraged open discussions and the exchange of ideas among the attendees. The FDP concluded on a note of gratitude, with Dr. Aboobacker, Coordinator of NAAC at Rouzathul Uloom Arabic College, expressing appreciation to the distinguished speakers, enthusiastic participants, and dedicated organizers. This event, by equipping attendees with valuable insights and strategies, reaffirmed the institution's commitment to excellence as it progresses towards NAAC 2028 accreditation.

5th Convocation Ceremony

The 5th Convocation Ceremony of one year Urdu Diploma Course (2021-22 batch) at RUA College unfolded with a diverse and enriching programme, celebrating the achievements of its graduating students. The event commenced with a soulful Qira-ath by Adhnan K C, a Urdu Diploma student, setting a contemplative tone for the ceremony.

Dr. Ayman Shouqi, the Centre In charge, extended a warm welcome to the attendees. The distinguished Prof. Shahad Bin Aly, Principal of RUA College, assumed the role of the Chair for the event, adding an air of authority to the proceedings.

The highlight of the ceremony was the Inauguration and Award Distribution segment, presided over by Prof. Dr. PK Aboobacker from the Department of Urdu at the University of Calicut. His presence elevated the occasion, and students were honored for their academic excellence.

A moment of gratitude unfolded through felicitations extended by Dr. Sharafudhern, Asst. Professor of Arabic; Prof. Ali K, Senior Faculty; Dr. Fahad P, IQAC Coordinator; and Dr. Izudheen. Their words resonated with pride and encouragement for the graduates.

Ismail Ibrahim, Urdu Teaching Faculty; then delivered a heartfelt Vote of Thanks, expressing gratitude to all contributors and attendees.

Notably, acknowledged the communication challenges faced the previous year, resulting in the delay of the ceremony for the 6th batch. This delay was attributed to communication issues surrounding the issuance of 16 certificates. Despite the hurdles, the ceremony successfully honored the achievements of the graduates, marking a memorable milestone for RUA College.

The 5th Convocation Ceremony will be remembered not just for its ceremonial aspects but also as a testament to the resilience and determination of both the institution and its graduating students.

This immersive experience transcended a simple program; it offered a springboard for participants to refine their Arabic communication skills, delve into diverse learning approaches, and connect with a like-minded community.

Opening the Dialogue:

The workshop commenced with a warm welcome from Dr. Usama CA, followed by Prof. Usman C K's insightful chairing of the inaugural session. Prof. Shahad Bin Aly, Principal of RUA College, set the stage by emphasizing the critical role of communicative Arabic in a globally interconnected world. Inspiring felicitation speeches by Bassam Ahmed Mohammed alghfori, Mohammedawar, and Dr. Fahad (IQAC Coordinator) further underscored the workshop's significance. Hafsaçamuddin, representing the Arabic Association, concluded the opening with a heartfelt vote of thanks.

Diving into Deep Learning:

The workshop wasn't merely theoretical; it offered practical insights through engaging presentations. Session One, led by Dr. SHARAFUDHEEN.A, featured Bassam Ahmed Mohammed alghfori's presentation titled "Arabic from Environment." This thought-provoking session explored how everyday surroundings, from street signs to market interactions, can serve as catalysts for language acquisition. Afeefa thwahir, a BA functional Arabic student, expressed her appreciation for the innovative approach.

Session Two, helmed by Dr. ABOOBACKER .K, delved into "Arabic Learning Strategies." Mohammedawar's presentation equipped participants with valuable techniques and personalized insights, empowering them to navigate their language learning journeys more effectively. SHIFNA SHANISHAD, a BA AFSAL ULAMA student, commended the practical takeaways offered.

The final session, chaired by ISMAIL IBRAHIM, presented Dr.Abbas .K.P's insightful exploration of "Acquire Language through Listening." This session highlighted the often-overlooked power of active listening in language acquisition, emphasizing its ability to refine comprehension and fluency. SHIDAD, a BA AFSAL ULAMA student, concluded the session with a vote of thanks, echoing the value gained from Dr.Abbas's expertise.

Beyond the Sessions:

The true impact of the workshop extended beyond the presentations. It fostered a vibrant learning community where participants actively engaged in discussions, exchanged ideas, and shared their own language learning experiences. This collaborative atmosphere not only enriched individual learning but also created a sense of belonging and mutual support.
